

Assem Wahby is the Management's Consultant for Advanced Computer Technology (ACT), he is presently responsible for supporting top managements strategic goals and objectives. He is also involved in the development of ACT's community affairs with ETISAL and other IT associations serving the community at the Egyptian market.

Prior to his current appointment Mr. Wahby served as General Manager Chamber of Communication and Information Technology (CIT). He has taken the chamber from one level to the other by developing its relations with other NGOs and IT entities. Mr. Wahby was personally involved in all Chamber's events internationally and locally.

Mr. Wahby has held a number of senior positions within the ICT sector since his graduation in 1974. As the ITD Director for SAAD Specialist Hospital in KSA, he has established the ITD department and was responsible for the implementation of the Hospital Management Information System that covers Medical, financial and administrative activities. Prior to this, he has co-founded BBC International (an ORACLE VAR and Authorized ORACLE training Center) and served as BBS member of the board and was responsible for all company's financial and administrative activities, as well as participating in designing and specifying business rules for every financial packages owned and distributed by the company.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Wahby worked as an Attaché in the Statistics department in LEAGUE of ARAB STATES, a position that assisted him becoming the Operation Manager later on in MISR TRADE Company (an export and import company). 1989 Mr. Wahby relocated to KSA as the System Manager for AHMAD HAMAD ALGOSAIBI & Bros. Having Extensive expertise in the both IT and managerial operations, Mr. Wahby was soon promoted to an EDP Manager in the same company. Nevertheless Mr. Wahby's ambitious lead him in 1994 to become the General Manager for DATABASE CONSULTING GROUP (DCG-EGYPT).

Mr. Assem Wahby has earned his Bachelor in 1974, from faculty of Economic and Political science, Cairo University.